President's Report:

Amazing another board meeting and another snow storm appears. We are getting ready for the season, activities are beginning to get booked and coaches meetings are happening more regularly again. The buzz is on at Trolls landing with everyone moving their trailers, buses and tiny homes into place for the winter. Super exciting to see this little community grow. The AGM was a bit light from an in person attendance perspective but we had a great turn out of about 53 people online and many that watched it afterwards despite the technical hiccups and the covered up microphone.
